THE MADERO PORT SCHEME.

Those of our readers who are familiar with Mr Madero's Port Scheme will have seen with surprise that the report of the special committee, named by the Minister, opposes the measure, notwithstanding that Congress has ordered it to be carried out, and the public of Buenos Aires anxiously hoped it would prove a reality.

We, for our part, do not well understand the object of the Minister of the Interior in naming the Committee in question, since, after a very prolonged discussion, Congress at last had passed the law, and there was really nothing further, in the ordinary course of Government procedure, but to carry it out and make the contracts.

For close on 20 years Mr. Madero has been engaged in this great scheme; he has brought out from England some of the most noted engineers, and as Dr. Pellegrini in Congress very properly stated, Mr. Madero had gone to so much expense and trouble in the matter that he certainly enjoyed preferential rights in case that the House should deem its prudent to carry out the works. The debate in Congress on the subject was so long that we all thought when the question was finally decided by both Houses, and the bill duly promulgated, the public would be spared any further discussion; but the report of this Committee opens up all the old debatable questions, and we are treated to the extraordinary procedure of the Minister naming a Committee, not to carry out but criticise and discuss the law, at least the paper before us seems tantamount to this.

The gentlemen, who compose this committee are all men of good standing and position, and some of them with technical education and experience invaluable for the consideration of this great question. The following are their names:—

Dr Dn J B Gorostiaga
Dn. Juan Anchorena
Guillermo White
John Coghlan
Capt. Hunter Davidson

But, although, all these gentlemen are of high standing and position, many of them may have their own peculiar views about this port question; and although we do not for one moment wish to question their honourable and conscientious judgment, as expressed in this report, it is barely possible that many of the committee are fixed in their belief that Ensenada is the real port of B Aires and everything else is blunder.

In a neatly printed pamphlet just received, we find Mr Madero's reply to the report of the Committee; a very ably drawn up paper, and which, to our mind, refutes the objections raised by the Committee. The paper is, however, too long for our columns, and we give the following resumen of the various points by Mr Madero, reserving for a future occasion further remarks on this all important topic:—

It is proved :—

That a Port on the scale proposed is urgently required; that the port must include Docks and Warehouses, and the necessary channels leading thereto; and that the construction of such a port is perfectly practicable, from a technical point of view.

That my plan has the indisputable advantage of combining the work, the means to carry it out, and the necessary funds, independent of all the vicissitudes that wrecked all former port schemes.

That the 10 per cent profit demanded is very moderate. That, for 60 years, since Rivadavia first mooted it, public opinion has been unanimous in the matter. The Republic has both the will and the way to make the port. Three different times has the Government consulted special engineers on the point, at the enormous cost, for plans etc., of ½ a million hard dollars. Yet nothing has been done, in spite of the recent Act of Congress which deals with every phase of the question. What is the cause of so much energy and money being thrown away? The "fatality," so often mooted, is only an excuse, out the cause.

I have studied the matter for 20 years, and know where the main difficulty lies. On reading the Report which I am now answering, more than once, I have discerned it, amidst the general vagueness of the document.

"Reduced to its most simple expression, my plan is:—

To build a port to be approved by you.

On plans and estimates to be approved by you.

Directed by an engineer to be approved by you, and built by contractors to be approved by you.

Payment to be made in Bonds or cash when the works are finished, the cost of placing the Bonds to be for my account, and also the necessary advances, my remuneration being ten p. cent on whatever estimates you may approve, and, in addition, the new port not to interfere in any way with that at the Riachuelo.

Nothing could be more simple or fairer, better or more economical; nevertheless, strong opposition to it is conjured up. Why? Would it be rash to look for the answer in the fact that the contract once signed, is sure to be carried out, thus frustrating a cherished scheme.

In view of all I have stated; that the liability of the Governnment is purely conditional, and that it is neither just nor reasonable to put me to the cost of complementary studies, of the employing of engineers, or any other fresh outlay or private engagement, without previously giving me the necessary authorization, I respectfully ask for the contract as established by Law, with whatever additions you may be pleased to put to it.

Eduardo Madero

FLAX.

Among the many changes which have taken place here, for the better, during the past quarter of a century, there is not one, perhaps, so pregnant with great results, both for the present and future prosperity of this country, as that in our agricultural prospects. The men are still living who laughed at the very idea of this vast and fertile territory ever being turned to any use save that of grazing our horses, cows and sheep. The arid (as they then thought) plains of Santa Fé were not even good enough to support cattle; yet what a short time it has taken to show them how ignorant they were, at least in an agricultural point of view. No sooner did the Italian land on these "arid plains" than he saw at once what they were best suited for, and the past few years have given ample proofs of how sound his judgment was. Even our sheepfarmers, especially those who rent land on our inside camps, know perfectly well to-day, that in order to make any profit out of a holding, they must devote a certain portion of it to agriculture. Wheat and maize are the two cereals that have up to the present given the best results, and which are more generally sown, but another industry that has lately attracted great attention is the culture of flax, the sowing of which within the past couple of years has assumed such gigantic proportions here.

The boon, which Mr. James Wilson, at present residing in this city, has conferred on the country, especially on all flax cultivators, cannot be easily imagined. He has just published a really admirable work in pamphlet form, on this industry; and so simple yet concise are his practical ideas, that every one can understand them, and a sheep-farmer, after studying this little pamphlet, will be able to cultivate his flax with as much confidence in its success as an experienced grower. Full and complete instructions are given as to the selection of the seed, the preparation of the soil, the sowing, the covering of the seed, the weeding, the proper time to pluck it, the plucking, the crop, the preparation of it for the machine, and the steeping process; to each of these he devotes a separate chapter, and were it not for want of space, we would gladly translate them for the benefit of our readers. However, we give the following observations which we find at the end of this very interesting pamphlet:—

"The principal requisites to obtain a good crop of flax are: a well prepared soil, a close sowing, careful weeding, the plucking, and especially the steeping process. A flax crop is better suited than any other for soil where maize or any other green crop has been reaped.

"I would strongly recommend agriculturists to sow alfalfa seed mixed with the flax, as, when the latter is being plucked, the soil is loosened about the roots of the former, which tends greatly to the improvement of its growth, as also to its quality and increase in quantity. This should be done if the object of the planter is to obtain the fibre as well as the seed. After the flax is gathered in, a roller should be passed over the alfalfa, which operation will give vigour to the plant, and leave the ground level and even for the reaping machine. The agriculturist will find by following this method of working and preparing the soil for the alfalfa, that the crop will be free from weeds, and that he can obtain two good crops during the year; that is, the 'lino,' which will be fit to be pulled up at the end of Nov., or beginning of December, and the alfalfa which can be cut in the month of March.

"I am fully convinced that the most suitable districts for the cultivation of flax are those in the South of the province, such as Bahia Blanca, and on the banks of the Colorado, Chubut and Rio Negro. I prefer the last point for the following reasons;

1st. Its cold climate being very suitable for the growth and maturing of the flax, and second, the soil is of the finest quality, being composed of black earth, "arsillosa" and sandy, which is that which produces the finest quality of flax. Having lived several years as an agriculturist on the Rio Negro, and examined its waters, I feel convinced that they are very suitable for the steeping of the flax, being like those of the River Lys in Belgium."

QUARTETT SOCIETY'S CONCERT.

The 148th Concert which took place on Monday evening was a brilliant success; the saloon of the Teatro Nacional was crammed and many distinguished native families were present, and we also noticed many Germans and a fair number of representative English families.

The programme was a good one, though not so interesting as many we have heard. The execution, however, was faultless, and it must have been highly gratifying to the artistes to notice with what deep and evident interest the piano duet and the Hayden Quartett were listened to.

The first thing on the list was a quartett of Schubert, the Andante movement of which, with its delicate and plaintive theme, was most feelingly played and loudly applauded. The other movements do not call for special notice, and on the whole this is not one of the most interesting of Schubert's string quartetts. The next event, however, a Sonata in A flat by Hummel, and some Norwegian dances by Hofmann, all 'á quatre mains,' was the event of the evening. Sr. E. Piazzini (bass) and [illegible] (treble) were the performers, we have again to compliment the talented young artiste, Laferrere, on the accuracy and brilliancy of his playing, nothing could be mechanically better; but we venture to suggest a closer study of expression and sentiment without which the true interpretation of any piece must necessarily be imperfect.

From Hofmann to Hayden is a long stride backwards in the history of music, but this, however, did not prevent a keen enjoyment of a masterly performance of a Hayden string quartett with which the concert ended. The simplicity of the themes in each movement of this quartett is noticeable, but it is this very simplicity which is so charming and soothing; the listener is in a passive and receptive state, he is affected sensually by the music; while for the music of Raff and Wagner or Beethoven (string quartetts) one must pull oneself together and the intellect is employed even more than the senses. We should study more the music of the earlier masters, it is so to speak the harmonical foundation of the more elaborated music of the present day; but more of this anon.

Thus ended most pleasantly the 148th Session, and the last note had died away entirely ere anyone ventured to move from his seat.

On the slate outside we were very pleased to see a goodly number, twelve or more, of names to be proposed as members of this useful and flourishing Society, and we congratulate the new President and Committee on the complete success of the first concert given under their regime.

THE STEWART-HORROCKS AFFAIR.

(From the Reforma).

"We must put the saddle on the right horse. The Judge of San Roque condemned Mr. Horrocks to pay a certain number of "strong dollars," so it is quite clear that he owes them. Our object is, to remove the false impressions created by erroneous reports, and show that the Court might have dealt much more severely with Mr. Horrocks for his attempt to evade the decision of a competent Tribunal. The facts are:

"Mr. Horrocks having allowed the legal term to elapse without taking any notice of the Court's mandate, an order of 'embargo' was issued. The undersigned officer of Justice called at Mr. Horrocks's house to enforce it, but the latter said he owed nothing, and refused to let him in. The officer returned to the Juzgado and reported progress. The Judge then ordered the police to enter the house by force, if necessary. When the officer again knocked at his door Mr. H. made some uncomplimentary remarks about policemen in general and Asuncion Judges in particular, threatened to put bullets through the whole lot, and in case that failed, he had a reserve of savage dogs in his patio and, as an "ultimo ratio" a lot of nitro-glycerine, with which he would blow them all into the middle of next week.

"The officer then went for two policemen, but, on returning, found that Mr. H. was "not at home;" but, while they were entering to seize as many of his Lares and Penates as would cover the debt, Mr. H. passed in a tram-car. The 'embargoed' articles were then removed and two men left to guard the house till the owner returned, when they had orders to leave. All other reports as to the matter are false.

"The public can now judge the case, with the facts before them.

"Dionisio Loizaga."

LONDON LETTER

(From our own Correspondent.)

JUDGE LAW—THE BLASPHEMY CASE.

In a recent letter I alluded to the refusal by Mr. Justice North to bail Mr. Foote, the editor of the Freethinker, accused of blasphemous libel for publishing a vulgar, indecent and abominable caricature of the Life of Christ. Foote has been sentenced, and as first reported, to so severe a punishment that it offended the public sense of justice. No one sympathises with Foote, but the sentence has been angrily commented on.

The Daily News says:

"The second trial of the three persons charged with the publication of a blasphemous libel in the Christmas number of the Freethinker ended yesterday in a verdict of guilty and in sentences of striking severity. Foote, the editor, was sentenced to twelve months' imprisonment with hard labour; Ramsay, the publisher, to nine months; and Kemp, the printer, to nine months. The passing of the sentence was the occasion of one of the most painful scenes of disorder which have been witnessed in a court of justice for many years. The offenders themselves, by the indecency of the attack they made on persons and things which a large part of the community regard as sacred, had put themselves out of the pale of public sympathy; but the severity of the punishment, and the language of the Judge both in defining the legal meaning of blasphemy and in passing sentence, may go far to create a reaction of feeling, if not on their behalf, at least against such prosecutions. Mr. Justice North has unhappily succeeded in putting so much theological animus into the case that it has enabled the friends of these men to represent them as sufferers for opinion. It is likely to be said that prosecution for opinion has been revived in this country. Of course it is not so, though the remarks of the Judge give the case that aspect. These men were prosecuted for indecent attacks upon religion, and it is the indecent character of the attack which is, as we understand it, the ground of their offence. So far the law may be defended, and it should be equally applied all round. The doctrine that Christianity is part of the Common Law in a country in which Jews, Mohammedans, and Buddhists enjoy perfect freedom needs to be expanded into the demand for the respectful treatment of everybody's honest opinions on religion. The English people are not likely to lose their hold on Christianity, but the time has gone by when they were willing to see it defended by prosecution and imprisonment. What such defence may lead to is seen in an announcement of the Rev. Dr. S. Wainright that he and his friends of the Society for the Suppression of Blasphemous Literature intend to indict Mr. Huxley, Dr. Tyndall, Mr. Herbert Spencer, Mr. John Morley, and the Rev. Dr. Martineau for blasphemy. The threat is probably a mere boast intended to call attention to the persons who make it; but it illustrates the dangers of the doctrine that it is the duty of the law to protect any one set of opinions against any other. Most Englishmen believe that opinion in this country is absolutely free, and that the law demands only its decent expression. That there should be anything in yesday's prosecution and sentences to conflict with this opinion is perhaps more the fault of the Judge than the law he administered."

I must add to this quotation that Mr. Justice North defined the legal meaning of blasphemy as being "any contumacious reproach or profane scoffing against the Christian religion or the Holy Scriptures, an act exposing the Holy Scriptures or the Christian religion to ridicule, contempt, or derision."

The jury were directed to consider only whether the passages in the publication were blasphemous, and whether the accused was responsible. It seemed as if the Judge intended them to understand that all other questions not being revelant might be safely left with the sentence to him. The jury, therefore, after a brief consultation, returned a verdict of "Guilty." The Judge, in addressing George William Foote, said it was sad that he, to whom God had given such evident intelligence and ability, should have prostituted his talents to the work of the devil.

"I consider," he said, "this publication totally different from any of the works you have brought before me in every way"; and thereupon he sentenced Mr. Foote to twelve calendar months' imprisonment with hard labour. Ramsay, the proprietor of the Freethinker, got nine months, and Kemp three months with hard labour.

Such was the sentence as first reported; but its severity caused such audible growls, even in the Times, that had it been true, public opinion would have revolted against it in a form very dangerous to the ends designed by the wire-pullers of the prosecution.

To-day a mean little paragraph appears in the morning papers stating that the sentence passed by Mr. Justice North was not imprisonment with hard labour, but simple imprisonment. It is very strange that all the papers should have reported the Judge's words wrongly. Peradventure, the theological zeal and stimulant excited in the Judge's mind in exhorting the prisoner had loosened his tongue—even in judges an unruly member—beyond his control and intentions.

It is gratifying to know that the new Criminal Code which the Government brought in in 1880, and ought to be passed this session, contains an article that will rid us of the present state of the law, which, in respect to blasphemy and many other subjects, is behind the age, and presents a tempting tool of persecution to the busybody and fanatic. The Article is this:—

"Art. 137. Blasphemous Libel.—Every one is guilty of a crime and liable to one year's imprisonment who publishes a blasphemous libel. Whether any particular published matter is a blasphemous libel, is a question of fact. But no one is guilty of blasphemous libel for expressing in good faith and in decent language, or attempting to establish by arguments used in good faith and conveyed in decent language, any opinion whatever upon any religious subject."

The judges, whose revered ermine cannot cover weaknesses common to all mortals, will have one of their fangs drawn in a few weeks by the passing of the Lord Chancellor's bill to amend the law of Contempt of Court. A most active agitation is in progress in favour of the institution of a Court of Criminal Appeal. It is supported by Sir Henry James and the Recorder of London. The only appeal now in criminal cases is to the Home Secretary, in camera.

It is revolting to think that at this moment the man Perriman is undergoing a commuted sentence of penal servitude for life, instead of being executed for murder, for which crime he was convicted; but it has since been discovered that the supposed victim—his mother—committed suicide.

Two or three days ago, a gentleman well connected was sentenced to twelve months' hard labour for forging the signature of Sir John Ennis to a bill. It was admittted that the offence was not the first of the kind on the part of the gentleman, Mr. Howell. But, it was urged, that in a man of his position, it was sufficient punishment to find himself under such a charge. The judge did not quite see that, and gave him twelve months. On the same day is reported a case where a poor man had been sentenced to seven years' penal servitude, with hard labour, for obtaining goods on false pretences. The man appealed and got two years knocked off; his counsel applied for costs, but the judge, in refusing, raised a laugh, by suggesting that it was a sufficient concession to take two years off his sentence.

By many well-meaning English people it is considered almost a blasphemous libel against their superstitions to call in question the conduct of our judges, who, to say the truth, have, as a rule, deserved the reverence paid to them; but if some one has not the courage to occasionally protest against their decisions, those who know something about it, and the idiosyncrasies of some of our lawyers on the bench, know that in some cases, if left to themselves, their tyranny would be unbearable. Lawyers live, from necessity, in a vile atmosphere; they become callous on moral points of scruple, or even sentiment, which to other men are serious questions.

WOOD V. STONE PAVEMENTS.

To the Editors of the Liverpool Mercury.

Gentlemen,

In the discussion which took place at the last Council meeting, only two gentlemen took a practical view of this question, both of whom were opposed to the views and wishes of the memorialists who presented their petition. As the question is one of considerable importance, will you kindly permit me to offer a few remarks upon this subject, in which a considerable number of the most important ratepayers are interested who reside in those streets where it is desirable to lessen the noise of the traffic to enable them to pursue the delicate operations of science, medicine, business, &c.? I think those whose knowledge of the tenacity and endurance of the various sorts of wood will agree with me, that Mr. Forwood was wrong in assuming "pitch pine" as a standard of endurance, it being a very brittle and short-lived wood in comparison to birch or elm. This is the first point in my argument. The next is in the assertion made by Mr. Peet that there is a difference of 3s. 3d. per yard per annum in favour of stone sets. In order to place this matter clearly, I will use the figures of both these gentlemen as given by them:

Mr Peet estimatee the first cost of wood and concrete at, per yard	£0 15 10
I estimate 3½ sets of old wood sets to be worth the moderate sum of, per yard............	0 2 6
	£0 13 4
Mr. Peet estimates the life of wood pavement to be nine years, costing as above for that period 13s 4d per yard; therefore 30 years would cost, per yard..........		£2 4 5
Mr Forwood estimates cost of maintenance of wood pavement at 2s 8d per yard per annum, say for 30 years, would amount to......		4 0 0
Per yard........		£6 4 5
Mr. Peet estimates first cost of stone and concrete per yard at	£0 15 0
And the old sets after 30 years' use to be worth, per yard...........	0 5 0
	£0 10 0
Mr. Forwood estimates cost of maintenance of stone at 9d per yard per annum, say for 30 years..............	1 2 6
		1 12 6
Thus the relative cost stands as follows:—
Cost and maintenance of wood pavement for 30 years, per yard, per annum..............	£0 4 5
Cost and maintenance of stone pavement for 30 years, per yard, per annum..............	0 1 1
Apparent difference in favour of stone......	£0 3 4 per yard.

This difference, however, is more apparent than real. I will simply point to the fact that, taking these gentlemen's own figures, the cost of wood has evidently been put down at the most extreme high figure, at the same time the cost of stone sets has been placed at the lowest. The estimate of 15s. per yard as the cost of stone setts and concrete strikes the most non-practical eye as ridiculously low; to my mind the labour alone would absorb this sum. Again, Messrs Forwood and Peet have overlooked a most important factor in their calculations, viz., the relative amount of traffic in thoroughfares where it is desirable to have a noiseless pavement, and again I quote Mr Forwood's own figures. He says:

> The traffic in Prince's-road represented 51,270 tons per yard per annum;
> The traffic in Bold-street represented 93,343 tons per yard per annum;
> If Bold-street represents a traffic of 93,343 tons per yard per annum, costing 4s. 5d. per yard,
> Then, in the same proportionate rate of cost, a traffic of 51,270 tons in Prince's-road should only cost.... 2s. 5d
>
> Difference of cost between Bold-street and Prince's-road, in favour of Prince's-road per yard 2s. 0d
> Less cost of stone sets per yard .. 1s. 1d
> Increased cost of wood per yard only.......... 1s. 4d

Again, this difference of 1s. 4d. in the cost per yard is more apparent than real, for, taking Mr Forwood's own words, where he states that the Bold-street pavement wore upon an average 3/16 of an inch per annum. Taking this to be a fact, and when he shows the traffic in Prince's-road to be nearly 50 per cent less than that of Bold-street, the only conclusion that can be drawn is that the annual wear of the wood blocks in Prince's-road, where the traffic is so light, would hardly be perceptible at all. I think, therefore, that the application of the words 'crude study of this subject' to be perfectly unjustifiable as applied to Mr. E. Grindley, and deserves the censure of those gentlemen who constituted the deputation on the subject to the Council.

One Who Knows.

Liverpool, March 6, 1883.

LATEST FROM RIO

Experiments are being made in the Jurujuba hospital with nitrate of silver in the treatment of yellow fever.

It is said that the Duke of Saxe is intending to send for his two sons, the Princes Pedro and Augusto, who are living in Brazil.

The Government has appointed Dr. Joaquim Galdino Pimentel to the position of fiscal engineer of the Copacabana tramway line.

It is stated that the new Copacabana line will be begun in Rua Real Grandeza, Botafogo, connecting the Botanical Garden line with the Copocabana beach.

We note the arrival, per Silver Cloud from the Cape of Good Hope, of Mr R. F. Veovide, tragedian, late of the London and Provincial Theatre, who intends at an early day to give a performance in Rio.

The Emperor has been pleased to nominate Estevao Manuel Brocard e Behoghel, chief editor of the Nord, of Brussels an officer in the Order of the Rose.

A commission representing the mercantile classes of the province of Parana visited the Minister of Finance on the 27th ult. and presented a protest against the vexatious tax of 1½ p. cent on sales, which is just being enforced there.

With reference to the illegal civil marriages of Protestants in Rio Grande do Sul, which has been brought to the attention of the Government by the German Legation after all other measures have failed, the Minister of Empire has denounced their irregularity, and ordered the prosecution of the guilty escrivaes. Unfortunately, however, nothing has been done to legalize the marriages already consummated by these officials, many of them having taken place years ago.

The monitor Javary has recently had two mitrailleuses added to her armament.

The state telegraph department is laying a cable to the Ilha das Flores for telegraphic communication with the immigrants' station there.

Out of 212 yellow fever patients sent to the Jurujuba hospital, on the other side of the bay, up to the 9th ult. 77 died, 72 recovered, and 64 remained under treatment.

A temporary hospital has been established in the suburb of S. Christovao for the reception of yellow fever patients. It will be known as the Hospicio de Nossa Senhora de Socorro.

The S. Christovao tramway company having reduced its fares to 100 reis on certain extensions of its line, as an experiment, the Minister of Agriculture has seized the opportunity to forbid the resumption of the old rate, thus making the experimental reduction a fixity.

The minister of empire has called the attention of the city council to the municipal by-law against tearing up the streets in the hot season. This by-law is being broken daily throughout the whole city; in fact, it is enforced only as against foreign companies, whom it is desired to embarrass.

It is stated that a new robbery has been discovered at the Banco do Brazil amounting to some 21,000$ in forged cheques of the Garantia Nacional. The robbery, it is alleged, was committed by an employee of the latter association who has lately disappeared from the city.

The director of the new Water Works has recently purchased five estates in the Serra do Tingua for the sum of 320,000$, with all their streams, forrests, etc., as an additional water supply for this city. This property will afford, it is estimated, not less than 54,439,000 litres of water per day in seasons of ordinary dryness. The acquirement of this new supply will require some 16 kilometers of water mains before its junction with Rio do Ouro works.

Notwithstanding the stringent regulations against the sale of provincial and foreign lottery tickets in this city, they are sold openly in the streets. Even a prize of 30,000$ was drawn by some one in this city, and is so announced in the daily papers. It is now becoming a matter for serious inquiry as to the real object of a law—whether it is to be observed for a few brief days, or at all, or whether it is simply 'para inglez ver.' Certainly the number of unobserved laws warrants many serious doubts as to the real object in framing them.

During the gun practice of the monitor Solimoes up the bay the other day, a ball from one of her guns passed through a poor old woman's house, nearly resulting in a fatal accident. Would it not be better to send the monitor outside the harbor for such exercises?

The Rio de Janeiro Central Sugar Factories, Limited, organized to construct a central usine at Araruama, is now offering its stock on the London market. The total amount is £56,250, in shares of £50 each, and drawing interest at 6 per cent. The redemption of the stock at £55 per share in Jan., 1901, is stipulated.

The total number of deaths in this city during the month of March, according to the daily mortality reports, was 1,314, or an average of 42.4 per day. This is equivalent to an annual average of 47.6 per thousand, assuming the population to be 325,000. The significance of this will be seen when it is known that this is twice the rate of many of the most populous cities of the world. The number of deaths from yellow fever in March was 195, the month closing with a daily rate of 15. This is an average of over 6 a day. Small-pox dropped to 46 deaths, and consumption increased to 179.

An important case of smuggling was detected in the custom house a few days ago. An umbrella manufacturing house of this city submitted a dispatch for 43 pieces of mixed cotton and silk. Suspecting some fraud, the inspector ordered a careful examination of the goods, when it was discovered that only 17 pieces were of mixed cotton and silk, while the remaining 26 pieces were of pure silk, excepting the first three meters of each piece. The official value of the goods is over $8,000. It is to be noted, however, that the customs authorities and the press are very careful not to mention the name of the importer, nor the manufacturer, while on the contrary the job is considered to be something worthy of praise and admiration.

In view of the transfer of the immigrant's station to the Ilha das Flores and the consequent closing of the Gamboa station, the contractors for the latter, Cardoso de Albuquerque & Co., have protested against the removal as an infraction of their contract. The Minister of Agriculture, however, throws out the petition, and tells them that they have no recourse, even for indemnification, because of one of the clauses of the contract which the Government interprets in favor of its suspension at any time. The contractors having expended considerable sums of money for the reception of immigrants, naturally feel aggrieved at this summary recision of their contract, but the minister tells them there is no remedy and they must pocket the loss along with the experience.

EDITORS' TABLE

The old story about the Senegale's mails yesterday—not visible till the ante-prandial bitters hour. We cannot say who or what is to blame. We're fairly tired of slow mail steamers, a lame Post-office and the whole concern. Mr. Dewey kindly sent us London papers of 20th March in the evening, but the news will keep till to-morrow.

The Testimonial to the Rev. James Smith will be presented to the venerable clergyman this evening at 8 o'clock p. m. in the Scotch School-room. A large gathering may be expected, as an expression of the universal respect and esteem we all feel for this excellent clergyman, who will sail in the middle of May for his native land, which he has not seen for so many long years.

The Thrilling Romance in yesterday's issue has revived the hopes of a wealthy Irish family in Carmen de Areco, one of whose members has been missing for 25 years, without any clue as to his fate.

The thermometer came down with a flop between Tuesday night and yesterday morning. The rain during the night was heavy enough, and a brisk 'pampero' blew in the morning. Top-coats were very general yesterday.

The performance at the Opera House on Tuesday evening, for the Damas de Caridad, was a great success. House filled to the skylights. The opera was "The Man of the World," but as we were not there, we have no idea how the role of that excellent Scotchman Sir Pertinax Mac' Sycophant was sung.

The Government has decided that all Lottery-ticket sellers must pay Patente Tax. Does this include the lame, the halt and the blind; the women and boys; the rogues, vagabonds, filthy beggars and dead-beats of all kinds that now make the streets a purgatory, if not an "infierno," for the public by thrusting Lottery tickets under its nose every half minute?

The latest telegram from Dublin says that there is great difficulty in protecting the members of the Jury that condemned Brady to death. Also that some of the rest of the assassins are expected to plead guilty. The Queen issued an Order in Council prohibiting the sale of all explosive materials.

"I'll send for your husband," said Swift to Mrs Pilkington, "to dine with us, and in the meantime we'll go and take a walk in Naboth's Vineyard." "Where may that be? enquired the lady. "Why, a garden," replied the Dean, "I cheated one of my neighbours out of."

Drowsy old Cordoba is waking up rapidly. No fewer than thirty telephones are now being put up there, for the Government and Municipality.

The Hon E Monson, Her Majesty's Minister in Montevideo, is expected here to-day, in one of the war vessels on the station.

A morning colleague doubts that the branch of the Western Railway from Pergamino to San Nicolas will be opened on the 25th May, as has been said in and out of the papers.

Governor Zavalla, of Santa Fe, must be getting well. H. E. attended a grand banquet of 140 knives and an equal number of forks and napkins, given the other night in Santa Fe city. The Governor looked much better, but went home before the whiskey negus (alias punch) came on the table. Dr Torrent was the principal speaker, electrifying the guests by his torrents of eloquence.

The presentation to the Rev. James Smith will take place this evening. The following is the programme:—

BENEDICTION.

The first quarterly examinations at the Scotch School were held lately and we hear gave very satisfactory results. The second quarter is now entered on. The number of pupils shows steady growth. Two new assistants have been engaged—Mr. Reydams, of the Brussels University, for Spanish and French, and Miss Moir Porteous, of Ladies' College Edinburgh, chiefly for music.

We see that, at long last, the Government of Cordoba has delivered to the Central Argentine Land Company all the lands it is entitled to. This will be of great advantage to the Company and enable it to progress still faster on the road to fortune.

The Island-Belle has returned from her official voyage to the South Coast, and has brought a lot of guano, penguin's oil, phosphates, and other odoriferous stuff which we understand will be on exhibition soon at the War Office.

At a recent card-party at the house of a popular London dentist the counters used were false teeth. At first the ladies present seemed very sensitive about touching the little white heaps, but as the evening wore on the more false teeth each fair dame possessed the happier she seemed. When the counters were totalled up at the end of the game, there were only three more than had been originally given out.

The Plaza Mayo is undergoing a complete transformation: The trees are being cut down, the ground is being levelled, and Mr Nettleship's splendid wooden pavement will be laid down in the whole square. This will be an immense boon to President Roca and his Cabinet while at work, as there will be no noise. My Lord Mayor, when this unequalled pavement is finished in Plaza Mayo, the square that wants it worst in all town is that of Piedad, between Florida and San Martin. In this wretched square, the tram horses make more clatter and the 'cocheros' more outrageous noise with their cow-horns than in any other in town. Yesterday one of these 'barbaros' played "Sally put the Kettle on" all the way down to the London and River Plate Bank, where he wound up with a demoniac variation that must have damaged the hearing of all who heard it.

Mr Baker, U. S. Consul, was kind enough to send us yesterday an official Report from the Department at Washington on "Ostrich Farming" in the United States, from which we will extract on the first opportunity.

In the first quarter of this year the City Lottery gave a profit of 30.870 pats. Good for the hospitals.

The Siglo of Montevideo complains that they are suffering down there from "demasiado Himno Nacional," which is played, in and out of season, by all kinds of people. The "verduleros" went at it the other day, so we suppose the Uruguayan National Anthem must have touched bottom and will rise again.

There was a tear in the eye of several estancieros yesterday in consequence of the announcement that the Provincial Government is now deliberating about a new system of marking sheep. The prophetic souls of some of our leading stock-breeders see the germ of a spanking new tax in this new system, and they tremble in their Wellington boots lest another "Renovacion" business is at hand.

Never before has such a complete and varied assortment of cooking ranges and stoves been seen in Buenos Aires as is now to be found at Calle Maipu No. 91. One of the most important manufacturing firms in the U. States have made arrangements with their agents in Brazil, Messrs. W. R. Cassels & Co., where their trade is very large, to extend their business in this country. The magnificent display made by this firm at the late Exhibition will be remembered by all visitors. Their object then was to acquaint themselves with the peculiar requirements of this country with a view to carrying out any alterations or adaptations in their stoves that might be desirable. All the stoves now shipped have been made especially for this market. One feature that seems to us as very important is, that all the parts are made after a pattern and interchangeable and spare pieces will always be kept in stock, by means of which repairs when required after years of use can always be easily and economically effected.

Governor O'Gorman reports that the Penitentiary can not go on any longer if the 'talleres' therein established for the prisoners be not suppressed at once, as the convicts make use of their tools to wound each other &c.

A New York paper remarks as follows on the New Tariff:—

"The Bill imposing a duty on books admits free only those printed 'exclusively in a foreign language.' So that if an English quotation appears in a French or German or Italian book imported, 15 per cent. duty must be paid, not on the quotation but on the book. It is true that, English words being generally misspelled in foreign books, the exclusively foreign character of the work might be sworn to; but how is anybody in the Custom House to know whether the spelling is right or wrong?"

Advices from the West Coast report yellow fever very bad at Callao.

An unfortunate mason fell from a scaffolding in Calle Talcahuano on Tuesday and was a good deal hurt. He was reading a heavy article in a morning paper at the moment, and the ladder gave way under the weight of the lucubration.

We are most happy to see that the poor Starving Children in Ireland are receiving more money daily. Yesterday was the best day yet—nearly $4,000 m/c.

In reference to Mr. Biggar's breach of promise case a home contemporary remarks:

"A second batch of judges have refused Mr. Biggar's further application for a new trial, and the poor old bacon-curer is now altogether out of court. Joe will probably be about £1,600 out of pocket, a heavy penalty for foot kissing; but there is some talk of a subscription being got up for him. And yet the poor man admits that he is worth £20,000."

The rabbit plague in Australia is spreading rapidly and threatens the sheep industry with ruin if the movement for the extermination of the rabbit is not simultaneous and general. The Scientific American suggests to inventors a big chance for a paying invention to exterminate this plague.

The tobacco of "Ole Virginny" is far more popular in England than its financial credit. A recent decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in reference to Virginia Bonds has caused much dissatisfaction in England, and a disappointed holder of same sends the following squib to the Money Market Review:—

"Sir,

"Please admit these lines:

Yankee Doodle borrows cash,
And makes haste to spend it,
Snaps his fingers in the face
Of the "flats" who lend it.
Ask him when he means to pay;
Without hesitation
Says he'll take the shortest way,
And that's—Repudiation!

CORRESPONDENCE.

To the Editor of the Standard.

Dear Sir,

About a week or ten days ago there appeared in your American contemporary a letter signed by "Snooks," which, for insolence and spitefulness, could scarcely be surpassed. The writer endeavours to hold up to scorn one of the most worthy of our community and his two most intimate friends.

Mr. Drysdale, on whom the vials of his wrath are especially poured out, is a gentleman known and respected by the whole English community. His name is synonymous with all that is most honourable and upright in business, truthful in character and genuine in religion. A man who has raised himself by his industry, perseverance and integrity to the first place in the commercial world of Buenos Ayres, who has borne his prosperity with a genuine humility, and who dispenses a noble charity with an open and liberal hand.

How the worthy man has been singled out for attack I cannot understand. Is it because "Snooks" is envious of the prosperity of others?—or has he been snubbed at some time for some impertinent improprieties of which he has been guilty? Certain it is, that the man he has sought to revile will be held in living remembrance, when he, the reviler, will be long forgotten.

The aged clergyman of the Scotch Church, simply because he speaks well of the man whose bounty he has been a receipient of for many years, and of whose hospitality he is a partaker, for this he is dubbed "an old trumpeter;" and the genial editor of the Standard, because he occasionally takes notice of the many good deeds of his friend, is called a "toady."

It is very easy to call names and thus throw mud at others, and "Snooks" seems to be an adept at that, and for which he merits the reprobation of all just and true men,

Yours, &c.,
A Subscriber.

ON 'CHANGE.
April 18th, 1883

Patacon	25.00
Cedulas A	100½
Cedulas E	86
National Bank Shares	105½

There was not much done in stocks to-day. Bank Shares although but little dealt in are decidedly firm, Cedulas are weakish, the heavy sale last evening noted in to-day's issue has had its effect on the market. Some of the heavy buyers at the beginning of the month are sellers now, and in certain circles there is a strong speculation for a fall. Cedulas, however, are too good a stock in this market to suffer much from any bear speculation, and whilst it is all but impossible to put them under 85, one touch of good news from Europe would at any moment put them at 90 or over. They say on 'Change that the Bank has an offer of 5 millions patacons on Series A, but at a low valuation, say 80, and it may not suit the Bank to accept any such offer. At the ring every manner of rumour is current in order to affect the market, but the limit of the fluctuation appears to be 1 or 1½ per cent.

The English Bank put down its drawing rate from 49⅜ to 49¼, and all the merchants say that they have nothing to draw. This seems absurd with produce leaving in every steamer.

The sales at the ring were as follows:—
Cedulas—
For cash A 16,000 at 100½-⅜
For cash E 37,000 at 86-85⅞-86-⅛
For April 30th E 91,000 at 85⅞-⅜-86
For May 31st E 25,000 at 86½-⅜
Sales, 169,000
National Bank Shares—
For cash 200 at 105¾-⅞
For April 30th 450 at 106½-106
For May 31st 1,900 at 107½-⅜-¼
To deliver on 31st May 100 at 105⅞
Sales, 2,650

At the Municipality to-day there was a long and important session. The offers to pave 20 squares with the new wooden pavement were accepted. Mr. Nettleship will therefore have much to do for us. After much discussion it was decided that the property owners in the streets so paved should pay their quotas of the cost. The Lord Mayor has a bad cold. The Board has authorised him to make a new esplanade in front of the Government House, in the Plaza 25 de Mayo.

Both Cedulas and Bank Shares ruled much firmer at afterhours. Cedulas buyers 86½ for end of month, and 86⅝ for May, and Bank Shares buyers for end of month at 106½. and 107½ for end of May.

The clearing of the La France was the business of the day, she took a large number of first class passengers, a full cargo and heavy mail.

There was a stiff row on the Beach yesterday between the Marines of the Capitania and 4 sailors of the ship Pengwern. Some of the sailors were so violent, they had to be tied down; they were sent on board their ship under escort.

The extortions of 'changadores' on the mole-head culminated yesterday in the arrest of a peon for charging a passenger 225 m/c for carrying his trunk up the mole to his hotel. It is high time that a stop be put to this inconvenient abuse.

Sr Boulevard Bravo, who has been so long sojourning in Europe, arrived yesterday; we hope he will now try with the new Municipality his great Boulevard scheme.

We learn, on good authority, that a skilled Veterinary Surgeon has been brought out from England by the proprietors of the great Black estancia, Entre Rios, to study the 'Grano Malo,' which has proved so bad this year amongtt the cattle. A very excellent move.

It was announced on 'Change that a leading export house had received a telegram from Antwerp, dated yesterday, announcing a drop of 5 centimes in River Plate wool, which news fell like a wet blanket on many of our consignee friends; 30 per cent good Buenos Aires wool 1,47½, which is very low.

The barque Island Bell, with an Argentine cargo of guano &c., from the far South Coast of this Republic, has entered Montevideo. Much interest is taken in this experimental cargo.

At Bahia Blanca they have had a tremendous gale, and we regret to hear some damage amongst the shipping in that port. The telegraph from Bahia Blanca to Patagones is still broken.

We call the attention of friends buying new camps to Mr. Birch's advertisement.

There was great delay to-day in the delivery of the Senegal's mails, they came up from the Mount in the Rapido, which seems spite of her name to be a slow coach enough.

At Rosario they have had a strike of the stevedores on board the Lamport & Holt steamers. All the dispute arose about beef to the men; rather strange in a country where beef is so monstrously cheap.

On the 23rd they will sell the barque Royal Highness lying at Ajo. It may be a good thing to buy her, as she would make a capital pontoon.

The steamers Polcevera and Claris both entered to-day, and the streets were crowded with new arrivals. New hands are coming into the country every day, and it is something incredible the giant strides of new colonies every week starting in Santa Fé. At the rate these colonies are increasing they will soon reach Santiago dei Estero frontier line.

Ten thousand tons of granite contracted for, for Municipality at $83 %.

With immense pleasure we announce that on an English estancia, 9 de Julio, they have at last established a plan for marking cattle without the 'lasso;' we hope in a few days to give full particulars. This is really glorious news for our friends the estancieros.

Yesterday Don Jose Atkins, of Patagones, had a long interview with Sr Uriburu, at the Provincial Bank, about opening a branch of the Prov. Bank in Patagones.

The sales at afterhours were:—
Cedulas—
For April 30th E buyer at 86½, seller at 86¾
For May 31st E buyer at 86⅝
National Bank Shares—
For April 30th buyer at 106, seller at 106½
For May 31st buyer at 107½

At the meeting of the creditors of the defauct Argentine Bank, held at the Tribunal of Commerce, 285 sufferers appeared, and put in the following claims:—
In currency, $28,707,154 %
In specie, $F555,631.50
In Bolivians, $82,317.12

Subsequently further claims were brought amounting in currency to $846,239 %, and in gold to $F4,363.03. The following are the principal creditors:—

Sr. Don Emiliano C. Aguirre $1,291,895 % and $F30,809.19

Sr. Don Mariano Castex $564,155 %
Sr. Don Clemente Vila $F20,525.34
Sr. Don Miguel Irigoyen $F27,314

For Monday next another meeting of the creditors is called.

The London papers give the following:—
"The Buenos Aires and Pacific Railway.—The Directors have made arrangements with the contractors, by which shareholders can now pay the balance remaining unpaid upon their shares, the same being treated as a payment in advance of calls, and interest being allowed on the amount at the rate of 3 o/o per annum."

We take the following from the Money Market Review to hand, under date London, March 9th:—

"To the Editor of the Money Market Review,
"Sir,
"In an industrial undertaking lately introduced to the public, I notice all the Directors are soldiers. I am invited to subscribe, and am told I may expect to receive 17½ o/o. No names other than the soldiers' are mentioned in connection with the management of the Company, so I suppose it is through their ability the concern will be made to succeed and pay 17½ o/o. I don't think I shall subscribe, for I remember an old saying, "Once a soldier, always a soldier", and "Once a sailor, always a sailor", implying that gentlemen who adopt these professions, and gain their experience of life in them, are not the best persons to select to conduct a business consisting of buying and selling goods.
"The extraordinary propensity of "promoters" to place the management of public companies in the hands of people of title, regardless of their business capacity or special fitness for the matter in hand, may account for the great majority of companies going so rapidly into liquidation.
"I am, Sir, &c.,
"H."

B. Aires, April 18th, 1883
Chacabuco No. 20.

To the Editor of the Buenos Aires Standard,
Dear Sir,

Although I have lived in the country some fifteen years, I have not known, until the last day or two, that Gen. Rivadavia had, in his day, proposed a scheme to join the two rivers, Riachuelo and Lujan, by means of cutting a canal.

Such a scheme, if carried out, might, probably, prove to be the easiest, quickest and cheapest one of giving to B. Aires a really accessible port.

The town would then stand, as it were, on an island; and the canal and rivers themselves would be kept pretty free of impediments, and also gradually deepened, by the ever running current of water flowing through; combined, of course, with the assistance of a little dredging.

I am not possessed of engineering knowledge myself, but simply take the liberty of mentioning my own ideas on a subject, of the most vital interest to all; hoping, thereby, to draw attention to the ventilating of a scheme that might prove of no small benefit to the country.

Probably, Sir, you will not object to favor the public with any notes or information you may possess on the subject? And, perhaps, there are among your subscribers some, who having given the subject their consideration, may also be willing to give us the benefit of their ideas.

Yours truly,
E. H. OYLER.

ABENDROTH'S "UNCLE SAM" RANGES

Awarded, THE ONLY GOLD MEDAL for Ranges of this class at the Paris Exhibition 1878.

THE ONLY SPECIAL PRIZE OF MERIT, together with Gold Medal at the Sydney Exhibition 1880. In competition with other Ranges from England, France, Belgium, the United States, etc.

These Ranges and Stoves which attracted so much attention and were so highly commended at the late Exhibition in this city, can now be obtained in great variety of size and style, at the manufacturer's depôt, just opened at

91—CALLE MAIPU—91

Special adaptations have been made to meet the peculiar requirements of this country.

One of the most valuable features in these Ranges and Stoves, is, that each part is made interchangeable, and extra pieces will always be kept on hand: thus, after years of use should any part require to be repaired, it can immediately and easily by replaced be a new piece at a comparatively trifling cost.

Ranges and Stoves will be Exhibited in operation.

Estos magnificas campos situados en la Provincia de Cordoba, sobre la linea divisoria de la Provincia de Buenos Aires, distan solamente 7 leguas del Fortin Gainza y 2 leguas de los campos de los señores Salas y Cernadas, que acaban de vender 25 leguas cuadradas a razon de diez mil pesos fuertes la legua y que se destinan a la formacion de un gran Establecimiento Rural, a mas del de los señores arriba nombrados y otros muchos alli existentes ya.

La calidad de las pastos es inmejorable para la cria de toda clase de ganados; lo demuestran los rodeos y majadas alli existentes que han venido huyendo de la seca que sufrian todos los Partidos del Norte y Oeste de la Provincia de Buenos Aires.

Ademas no debe perderse de vista la importancia y el porvenir que tienen estas tierras que debe atravesar el gran ferro carril Trasandino.

Debemos llamar muy especialmente la atencion de los compradores y pobladores de areas pequeñas, sobre las ventajas que tienen estos campos, que una vez vendidos seran entregados inmediatamente a los compradores, pues han sido vendidos judicialmente y aprobadas las mensuras, para cuyo efecto los vendedores ponen a disposicion de los interesados todas las referencias, y los titulos que se garanten de la manera mas eficaz, pues no hay protestas de ningun genero a su respecto.

La venta se efectuara sin base alguna, por lotes de media legua con opcion hasta cuatro leguas, y el pago se hara al escriturarse una quinta parte y el resto a uno, dos, tres y cuatro años de plazo, con pagare hipotecario e intereses del 7 o/o (siete) anual.

Remataremos a la mas alta postura y dinero de contado, por orden terminante de su dueño.

El establecimiento de campo arriba indicado compuesto de 2 leguas 383 mil. de otro de figura enteramente regular, pues tiene 8014 mts. por un costado y 7977 mts por otro

Linda con la sucession de D. Narciso Martinez de Hoz, Angel Beatti, Campbell, Carlos Salas, actualmente esta alambrado por dos costados y el Sr Dr Quirno Cos a que ha arrendado el campo de Martinez de Hoz, va alambrar ese campo de manera que no queda mas que un costado por alambrarse.

Tiene una buena poblacion de 4 piezas techo fierro galvanizado, con dos potreros, quintas y montes, 5 puestos mas, algunos con potreros, y algun monte.

Ademas tiene buenas aguadas, entre ellas 1 laguna muy resistente

El campo es superior tanto para ovejas como para vacas y actualmente hay alli haciendas de ambas especies.

Esta situado el campo en medio de Establecimientos muy valiosos de los Sres Carabassa, Martinez de Hoz (hoy cupados por el Dr Quirno Costa), Gebey, Grigg. Drysdale Lausen y muchos otros, pues es sabido que este Partido se ha poblado en estos ultimos tiempos de manera asombrosa, lo mismo que el Partido de Lincoln limitrofe con este.

Los precios pagados ultimamente en uno y otro partido no han bajado de 350 a 400,000 $ legua, asi que la base de $280,000 fijada para la venta no puede sino reputarse muy modica.

Remataremos a la mas alta postura y dinero de contado, 6 magnificos breaks omnibus, carruages solidos y elegantes construidos por los Señores Luiz Sauce y Sr Walls.

Creemos inutil toda otra recomendacion respecto a la construccion y elegancia de estos carruages, que todo el mundo ha visto recorer nuestras calles durante algunas semanas.

Estos vehiculos son apropiados para las estaciones de los ferro carries y especialmente para los propietarios de hoteles de campaña para traer y llevar sus clientes a las estaciones.

Un carriage de esta naturalezada de su cierto cachet a un hotel y estamos seguro se llevara toda la clientela que llega a una estacion al ver un carruage tan comfortable y elegante.

Ojo a la venta y aprovechar la ocasion que no se encuentran carruages como estos todos los dias.

Los interesados pueden inspeccionarlos todos los dias en el local arriba indicado.

Remataremos a la mas alta postura y dinero de contado por cuenta y orden del Sr Dick los siguientes animales lanares importados directamente de Inglaterra

5 Carneros
9 Ovejas — Cotswold
1 Borrega

Las ovejas vienen servidas.

En cuanto a esta raza es hoy en Inglaterra de las mas preferidas tanto por su tamaño y gordura, como por la calidad de su carne, pero especialmente por ser la que menos atacada es de la sarna, condicion muy notable de animales lanares por nuestro clima.

Ademas es sabido que esta raza es inmejorable para nuestros campos de pastos fuertes, donde este animal procrea admirablemente y hoy sobre todo, que la cuestion de la exportacion de nuestras carnes puede decirse esta resuelta, conviene mucho a nuestros criadores tener esta especie por los tamaños y gorduras.

Los animales arriba indicados podran verse en nuestra casa, Alsina 78, 3 o 4 dias antes del remate.

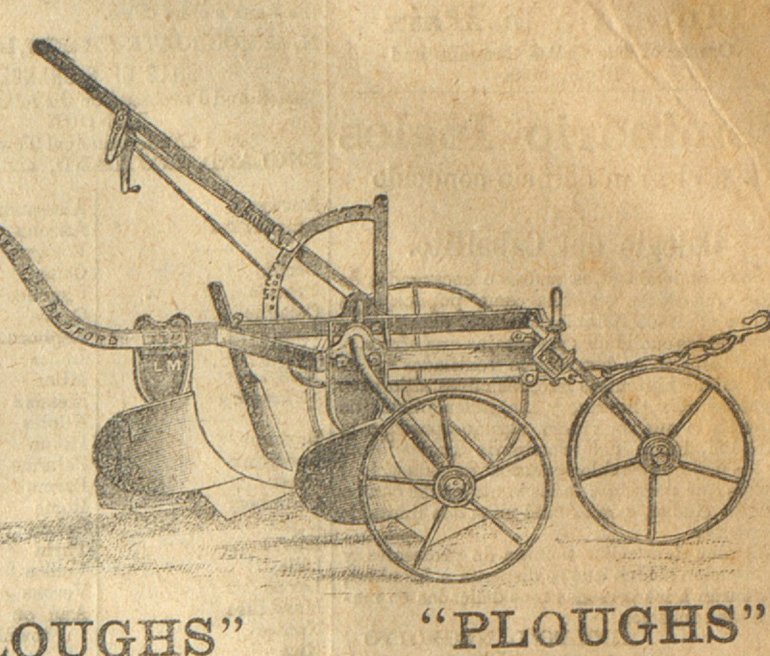
"PLOUGHS"



"PLOUGHS" "PLOUGHS"
Messrs M. Forrester & Co.
Beg to announce to the Public that they have lately introduced into this country with great success the Celebrated Two and Three Furrow Ploughs
OF
Messrs. HOWARD
ENGLAND

These WROUGHT IRON PLOUGHS fitted with breasts and shares of steel, have been extensively used in the Provinces and are destined to supersede the light and flimsy wood implements made by the Americans.

By means of a simple hand lever the onward movement of the animals raises the plough out of work at the ends, thus saving the driver the usual hard lifting connected with ploughing.

The two Furrow Plough is drawn by a pair of bullocks, thus doing double the work of a single plough and still with only one man.

These "Multiple" Ploughs are now almost universally employed in Australia and South Africa, and in recommending these implements Messrs. Forrester & Co feel confident that they are well adapted to the requirements of the Plate.

In order to procure these Ploughs orders should be sent in at once, or disappointment may be incurred.

BAKING POWDER

Used by thousands for making wholesome Bread, Cakes, Flour-Puddings, &c. Sold in 1d & 2d. packets and 6d. & 1s. boxes, by all Storekeepers and Grocers.

Invaluable at the Diggings and in the Bush, also on board Ship, as small loaves of the best Bread or Scones can be made in a few minutes without the aid of Yeast.

Private Ward, during the Zulu war, writes:—"I should just like you to see the real farmhouse bread that I bake! The oven is one dug in the ground, and is just large enough to hold our daily quantum of two loaves. We use flour, water, salt, and BORWICK'S BAKING POWDER. My bread often surprises me, it is so light, and white as snow. Some of our men will insist that I have been 'in the trade,' and nothing I can say will convince them to the contrary."
